

In regard to the proposed ruling allowing LPFM stations to take precedence over translators for regional services, I would ask that you reconsider in the best interest of many. If this would interfere with my regional programming of Christian music I would be very dissappointed. There are plenty of other stations on the air but very few that offer the Christian music & wholesomeness of these stations. Thank You